S.Ratna Durga

Petitioner

And

The Commissioner of Civil Supplies, Government of Andhra Pradesh, Civil Supplies Bhavan, Somajiguda, Hyderabad and others.

Respondents.

O R D E R:

The petitioner seeking a declaration that the action of the respondent in trying to remove the petitioner as Fair price shop dealer, as illegal, files the present writ petition.

The petitioner was appointed as Fair Price shop dealer purely on temporary basis as per the proceedings Rc.No.A2/219/2003, dated 31.7.2003. In the said appointment order, it is made clear that her appointment is purely on temporary basis and she will be terminated at any time without giving any notice and assigning any reasons and she does not confer any right to demand for her appointment on permanent basis during the temporary period of appointment. Without assigning any reasons of apprehension that the respondents are trying to remove the petitioner as fair price shop dealer, the present writ petition is filed by the petitioner.

No right of the petitioner is infringed so as to give a writ of mandamus; therefore, the writ petition is premature and is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.

JUSTICE K.C. BHANU.

6th October 2005.
